

Ready to dive into becoming a senior executive? Enroll in one of these upcoming courses!

Working with Congress for Federal Executives

Through group discussions, breakout exercises, video presentations, and an interactive case study, you'll gain a better understanding of the current political environment in which federal managers must be effective.

For SES members, GS-15s and their equivalents in local and state government

July 27-29

<https://go.usa.gov/xy6Vf>

Senior Executive Assessment Program

This intensive program measures your potential and offers a realistic preview of your future as a senior executive with a focused appraisal of your readiness.

Senior staffers, supervisors, or managers moving into an executive level position; any individual enrolled in the SES/Executive Development Program.

August 2-6

<https://go.usa.gov/xy6px>

Executive Development: Leading Change

Thinking strategically, you will gain new knowledge, skills, and understanding to improve your innovation skills and take you even further in your career as an executive.

GS-14 or 15 levels who are eligible to transition to the Senior Executive Service (SES), including those who are in SES Candidate Development Programs

August 16-20

<https://go.usa.gov/xmexz>